Dear Parents,

As the vibrant month of May comes to a close, we are excited to share the highlights of the wonderful experiences and learning moments your children have enjoyed in class. We kicked off May with engaging classroom activities that encouraged teamwork, problem-solving, and imaginative thinking. The children showed great enthusiasm in participating and collaborating with their peers. We celebrated “Book and Language Day”, where the young learners immersed themselves in stories from different cultures, explored new vocabulary, and participated in reading sessions that sparked their love for literature.

In honor of “Mother’s Day”, the children poured their love and creativity into making beautiful handmade cards and crafts. One of the exciting events this month was “Cooking Without Fire”, where the students turned into little chefs! They prepared simple, nutritious dishes like sandwiches. We also took the opportunity to observe “International Plastic Free Day”, raising awareness about the impact of plastic on our environment. Through discussions, art activities using recycled materials, and short videos, the students learned about sustainability and the importance of making eco-friendly choices. May has been a joyful and enriching month, and we are incredibly proud of how curious, kind, and engaged our students have been throughout all these experiences.

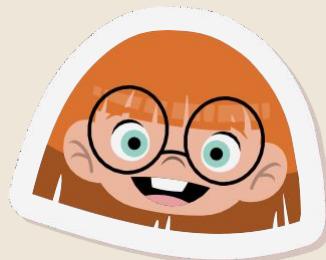

Warm Regards
