BRIEF REPORT

The UAE Cluster Football Championship was held on 25 June at Bright Riders School, Dubai. Our school proudly participated in the Under-17 category, displaying excellent teamwork, discipline, determination, and sportsmanship.

The championship provided students with an opportunity to enhance their physical fitness, strategic thinking, confidence, and leadership skills while learning the value of cooperation and fair play. Through their dedication and enthusiastic participation, our players represented the school with pride and gained valuable experience both on and off the field.

Overall, the tournament was a rewarding learning experience that encouraged students to stay active, face challenges with confidence, and develop essential life skills through sports.
